HOW LONG MEMORIES

Return With Us to Yesteryear

Like the glow of a campfire of the Old West GLOWING MEMORIES will help you look back on 1982 with warmth for the time and events that took place. Lean back in your saddle and dream of the time when cowboys were kings and buffalo and cattle roamed across the land. Just as those memories bring a smile to our lips and warmth to our hearts, we hope our look back at 1982 will produce many, many GLOWING MEMORIES of your own.

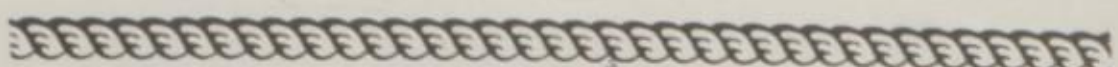

With summer still in our heads, we returned to LVA in the fall of 1981 to find 2 new computers, an electronic typewriter, and a water cooler. We also welcomed a new superintendent, Mr. Fran Morrow.

Activities were soon in full swing. Football practice was under way, All-State rehearsals had begun, and the All-School Play had been cast. The Kick-Off Dance provided the first social event of the year. Out-of-the ordinary PE classes had students canoeing on the lake, playing miniature golf, learning to polka, aerobic dancing, and even a winter survival hike.

Tony Duncan and others found casts and crutches to their liking, and students tested the seat belt convincer.

Elsewhere, 1982 was the year of the space shuttle, the assassination of Anwar Sadat, and political unrest in Poland and El Salvadore. The preppy look was in, and knickers and boots became high fashion. Stripes and On Golden Pond won our hearts at the movies, the Dodgers won the World Series, and Iowa's Hawkeyes went to the Rose Bowl.

Junior High MDE

This year's group started out learning first hand what it is like to live the life of a nomad. In the first four weeks of school we managed to relocate ourselves three times before finally finding our educational niche.

Our curriculum is based on a foundation of the 3 R's, and learning how to be a decent human being. We also sought to improve our abilities to communicate with others by launching a letter campaign to Mr. Berkley Bedell, (who answered), and the President, (who didn't).

We traveled to Des Moines and managed to catch a glimpse of the President, which many others failed to do. We spent an enjoyable day visiting the Historical Building, Capitol, and the Art & Botanical Centers.

Spring brings the season of competition to our class. We participate in the both the Special Olympics and the annual track meet at Wall Lake.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

We've been in school
since we were five,
We didn't know if
we would survive.

But, as you can see,
we all came through;
And in the process our friendships grew.

Through the laughing
and fighting we
made it OK,
To help us prepare
for our future days.

Sometimes we look to
the future with fear,
Then we look back to
our high school years.

All of the fun and the
moments we had,
Some that were happy
and others were sad.

These are the years
through life we'll
remember,
To help us along in
the very near future.

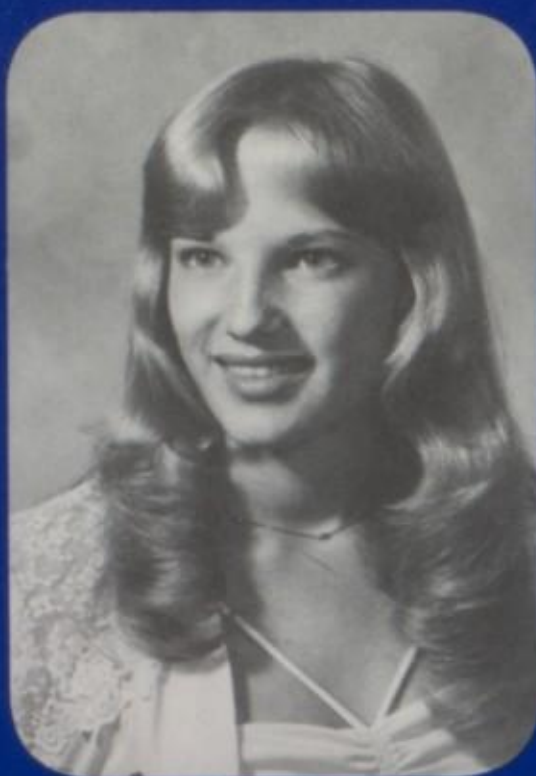

And as our high schooling
comes to an end,
We'll promise letters
to all of our friends.

These next few years
will go by fast,
And the future we see
will soon be the past.

But there's one memory
in our minds to stay,
That's being a 1982
graduate of LVA.

Old Mixed With New

Homecoming '81 will go down as a year of old traditions mixed with new. The student body voted to select LVA's first Homecoming King.

Other innovations in '81 included "Occupation Day"—where the students dressed as their favorite occupation. B. Manthe, K. Meyer, N. Bromley, and C. Meyer were some of the prize winners.

"Fantasy Day" asked the students to act out their "fantasy" in costume. M. Swanson, M. Schoenthal, J. Snyder, and R. Buse were among the best.

As some new traditions were established old traditions were a big part of the celebration as well. Skit Night was a resounding success. The band provided music, all the cheerleaders participated, and once again the Senior Class won the skit competition with their rendition of "Down Home With the Blackhawks."

Senior footballers ran through a blazing hoop at the downtown pep rally. The Junior Class' float won first prize at "the better-than-ever" parade.

The event climaxed with the game followed by a Homecoming Dance.

Council Buys Water Cooler

The 81-82 Student Council was elected the first day of school, and eagerly approached the responsibilities facing the group.

Randy Schmidt was elected to serve as President, and Brenda Sigmon served as Vice-President.

The group's activities included sponsoring Homecoming, the Snowball Dance, providing movies the day before Christmas break, and game ball raffles. The group decided to purchase a water cooler from pop profits.

Band Marches in Rain and Cold

The LVA Marching Band braved cold temperatures and driving rains during their 1981 season. The band, under the direction of Majorettes Dawnetta Ried and Julie Stock, performed during four football halftimes, and marched in the Homecoming Parade and Carroll Band Day Parade.

Kelli Meyer, LVA's Band Queen, was chosen as Queen of Carroll's Band Day Parade. She will reign over next year's parade.

As marching season concluded, the Concert Band began preparing for several performances during the winter and spring months. Concerts were given in December and May. The pep band boosted spirit at home basketball games and a trumpet trio played the National Anthem at tournament games.

Rochelle Stock and Susan Stock were selected to represent LVA in the Northwest Iowa Bandmasters Honor Band.

Spring brought on the long-awaited Band Carnival and the most popular "dunking stand". The climax for the year came with the Swing Show "Fortune and Fame".

Mixed Choir, Mens and Girls Choir spent another busy year. Two performances of "Concert on Christmas" were given at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church. LVA was also host for the Bo-Coon Conference Music Festival. Three Division I ratings were brought home from Large Group Contest at Onawa.

The highlight of the year was the invitation for two Madrigals to participate in the first Select High School Madrigal Festival at Sioux Falls, South Dakota. LVA and LeMars represented Iowa.

Preparations were underway in December for the first state sponsored Swing Choir Contest. Early morning rehearsals were held to learn choreography routines and memorize music. However, the contest was canceled due to a snowstorm and not rescheduled.

An April snowstorm again robbed LVA vocalists of a chance for success. Small group contest was the victim, being canceled for the first time in over 10 years. The vocalists had set a goal of 100% I ratings.

Swing Show Packs the House

Inspired by the hit TV program FAME, Kelli Meyer, JoAnne Altfillisch, Donna Aschinger, Kara Long, and Dave Dreeszen set out to author the script for the 1982 Swing Show. "Fortune and Fame" was presented on May 12 to a full house.

Practice time was short, but the Music and Drama Departments came through with another brilliant performance.

Sunny Skies for Newspaper Staff

After several years of "retirement", Mr. Sundholm again took over the reins of the Blackhawk Talk staff. Published weekly in the Lake View Resort, deadlines seemed to roll around endlessly. Co-editors Barb Bachman and Amy Tjaden provided leadership in the weekly preparation of the latest news and coming events at Lake View-Auburn.

"Oliver" Joins Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff welcomed "Oliver", our new electronic typewriter with open arms. Typing copy was suddenly fun! Co-editors Marsha and Jackie worked many hours to provide the staff with numerous ideas and to produce a book of which to be proud.

The Yearbook Staff, having decided on a western theme for the '82 Pow Wow, decided to show their Homecoming spirit by entering the above float in the Homecoming Parade. Round 'Em Up was ridden by Denise Daiker, Janean Evans, Sharon Olberding, Donna Aschinger, and Ruth Buse.

The Play Was a "Kill"

The setting is a living room of a house on Indian Island off the coast of England. To this location eight assorted guests are invited for the weekend by a mysterious host. The guests have never met any of the other guests before, nor have they met their host. Nor have the housekeeper, the butler, and the boatman ever met their employer.

How will the mystery end? Suddenly one by one the cast is murdered; until there are only two left. Who dun it?

This is what play-goers were faced with November 6 while watching Agatha Christie's murder mystery TEN LITTLE INDIANS.

Playin' the Prairie

Thespian Troupe 1805 was a very active group. Activities began during the summer as the concessionaires for baseball and softball games. Money earned was used to support speech/theatre activities such as contests, festivals, conferences, and improve stage facilities.

The Kick-off was held to explain all aspects of speech/theatre activities to interested students. Refreshments were served.

The most ambitious project of the year was to sell Homecoming and tournament I ♥ LVA buttons. A float was also entered in the Homecoming parade.

Six new members were tapped on April 20. The formal initiation banquet was held at the Minchen House in Carroll. The Best Thespian Award went to Amy Tjaden for her many contributions to speech/theatre during her career at LVA.

Hawaiian Haedown

"It's Just a Fantasy" was the 1982 prom theme. The supper was held at the Spring Lake Country Club. Hawaiian attire was worn by the waiters and waitresses. Hawaiian leis were placed around everyone's neck as they entered the country club. After having eaten a delicious steak supper the student body, their dates, and the faculty went to the school gymnasium to dance to the beat of Renegade.

Bustin' Loose

With strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" in the air, the 45 members of the Class of 1982 processed into the gym for commencement.

Randy Schmidt spoke of the days spent as a class, while Jackie Snyder told of future plans of the class members. DeeDee Dreessen read an original poem "Good Old Days", and a senior quartet sang "We've Only Just Begun." Our Senior Year in slides accompanied by the class song Time was also on the program.

The 1981 edition of the Blackhawk football squad, under the direction of Head Coach Bruce Stevens and Assistant Coach Frank Kraft, provided their fans with plenty of excitement and showed the definite improvement they have made in the last few years. An early season win against Battle Creek, plus impressive victories against Lohrville and Lytton in the last two games gave the Blackhawks three wins for the season. However, most of the losses were tight, close games that could have gone either way.

Next season looks especially bright for the Blackhawks. Their only losses will be Senior Co-captains Dave Dreeszen and Randy Schmidt, who provided the Blackhawks with leadership throughout the year. The rest of the team returns intact, including Mike McCorkle, who was chosen as the year's MVP by the squad. Look out for LVA next year!

Blackhawks Rebound to 17-6 Season

The 1982 Blackhawks, under Coach Tom Roberts, provided exciting and eventful play to their loyal fans and demonstrated a resurgence in LVA boys basketball. Included in their excellent record were 3 defeats each by the margin of 2 points. The Blackhawks narrowly missed winning the Bo-Coon Conference title and the Conference Tournament, finishing second in both. They did, however, win their first Sectional title since 1978, being defeated in the District by state qualifier East Greene. The Blackhawks will graduate 4 seniors who will be missed, but the winning attitude of 1982 should carry on to next season.

Another Great Year for Our Hawkettes

The many accomplishments reveal a great deal of devotion and a fine season for the LVA Hawkettes. An undefeated season, the 100th conference win in a row, the 12th consecutive year as Bo-Coon champions, and Coach Thomas's 100th win as a head coach are just a few of them.

Ranked #1 in our class and #2 in the overall ratings all season, the girls made their second straight State Tournament appearance. A loss in the second round to #1 Fairfield ended the season--a season of which the Hawkettes have every reason to be proud.

Berkeley Health Introduced

The Berkeley Health Program was introduced into the elementary 5-6th grade science curriculum during the 1981-82 school year. It is a comprehensive health program that explores various systems of the body and gives students information preparing them to make wise decisions concerning their personal health. The four systems that are explored are: digestive, respiratory, circulatory, and nervous system. The program will be expanded to include 4th grade in 1982-83.

Mrs. Marge Gronemeyer will retire from teaching at the close of the school year. Mrs. Gronemeyer has taught 28 years, beginning in Phoenix, Arizona, and the past 22 years at LVA. Travel, golf, and being a grandmother are among Mrs. Gronemeyer's retirement plans.

Teachers Hold The Reins

The LVA faculty found the trail smooth during 1981-82. The computer age was more evident that ever as a new course in programming was offered. The LVA-EA again offered scholarship money to graduating seniors, using a Sweetheart Dance at Lakewood as their primary fundraiser.

As We Ride into the Sunset

The dying embers of the campfire glow in the sunset as we near the end of the trail. The winter has been harsh with record-setting low temperatures and severe snowstorms. Students enjoyed several days of "snow vacation", only to find them added on to the end of the school year!!

Classroom activities added variety to the school day. Many topics were demonstrated, explained, and argued in speech class. Home ec students were introduced to foods from other countries, and HAP students got acquainted with a pig and cat on a first-hand basis.

Once again we traveled to Des Moines for the Girls State Basketball Tournament, and the coaches found going to State a "curling" experience.

The first signs of spring was the Junior-Senior Prom. The banquet and dance found us all in our "Sunday best".

End of the year activities made the year go flying by. The track teams were successful, the Swing Show was superb, and before you knew it the end was in sight. We hope you have enjoyed the look back at the events of 1982, and that each of you have your own set of GLOWING MEMORIES.

Those Glowing Memories

We started this year as a tiny spark,
The future of the year hidden in the dark.
Then through the year that spark grew,
And just like the spark we grew too.

Gradually the flame got brighter,
As our educations went higher.
The flame was roaring by the end of the year,
And for the seniors it was a time for tears.

As the year ended the flame returned to a spark,
For those next year to build again from the start.
In later years will look back at that spark and see,
All those glowing memories.

--Deidre Dreessen
